SOURCE C

First in the Klansman's mind is patriotism – America for Americans. There must be resistance, intolerance even, toward anything that threatens it. The white race must be supreme, not only in America but in the world.

[Hiram Evans, the leader of the Ku Klux Klan, in his article “The Klan’s Fight for Americanism” in The North American Review, 1926]

SOURCE D

In one district in New York, black people live, work and follow their own paths, almost separately from the surrounding city. Here, black businessmen can thrive; children are educated; the poor and sick are cared for; the churches, newspapers and banks of black Americans flourish without worry.

[An article for an NAACP publication about the benefits of migration to the north, published in 1926]
