SOURCE C

The radio is the most modern and crucial instrument for influencing the people. The first rule of radio broadcasting is at all costs avoid being boring. You must reflect the National Socialist mood of the times. We want a radio that reaches the people. We present to you the Peoples' Radio Receiver. Its low price will enable the masses to become radio listeners.

[Josef Goebbels, the Nazi Minister of Propaganda, in a speech at a Radio Exhibition in August 1933]

SOURCE D

I have been and I am being tortured! Every cruel method of blackmail has been used against me to obtain confessions about comrades that have been arrested, and about our political activities. I have been brutally assaulted and have had four teeth knocked out. I've been kicked and whipped and driven wild with pain.

[Ernst Thalmann, the leader of the German Communists, describing his treatment by the Gestapo after his arrest on 3rd March 1933. These details were smuggled out of the prison]
