SOURCE C

First in the Klansman's mind is patriotism – America for Americans. There must be resistance, intolerance even, toward anything that threatens it. The white race must be supreme, not only in America but in the world.

[Hiram Evans, the leader of the Ku Klux Klan, in his article “The Klan's Fight for Americanism” in The North American Review, 1926]

SOURCE D

In one district in New York, black people live, work and follow their own paths, almost separately from the surrounding city. Here, black businessmen can thrive; children are educated; the poor and sick are cared for; the churches, newspapers and banks of black Americans flourish without worry.

[An article for an NAACP publication about the benefits of migration to the north, published in 1926]

QUESTION 4

THIS QUESTION IS ABOUT RELIGION AND RACE.

Study the sources opposite and then answer the question which follows.

Which of the sources is more useful to an historian studying the lives of black Americans during the 1920s? [12 marks]

[You should refer to both sources in your answer and use your own knowledge and understanding of the historical context.]
