I am writing to complain about the poor service I received on your train. Firstly, the train was filthy. There was litter all over the carriage and the bin's were completly full. The buffet car was closed and although a trollie service was promised by the announcer, it did not appear at all during the three hours I was on your train. I would of complained to the conductor but when I went looking for him he was listening to other complaints and I need to get off the train.
