INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Use black ink, black ball-point pen or your usual method.

Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces provided on the front cover.

Answer ALL the questions on the examination paper.

Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. If you run out of space, use the continuation page at the back of the booklet, and if this is not sufficient use supplementary sheets, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question.

Question 5 will assess your ability to construct a balanced, reasoned and well-substantiated extended response.

In addition, your answer to question 5 will assess your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately and use a wide range of specialist language as appropriate.

SOURCE A

There is an industrial depression unlike anything ever seen before in Jarrow. The shipyard and the steelworks have closed down. There used to be 8 000 people, many of them skilled workers, employed in Jarrow, now only 100 men are employed on a temporary basis. We want more jobs for Jarrow.

[From a petition presented to the government by the Jarrow Crusaders]

SOURCE B

[Unemployed workers on their march from Jarrow to London in 1936. A large group of men walk along a road in the rain. Some of the men are carrying large banners on which 'Jarrow Crusade' is written]

QUESTION 2

This question is about life during wartime.

Study the source below and then answer the question which follows.

SOURCE C

The legend of British self-control and calm under fire is being destroyed. All reports from London agree that people are seized by fear. The 7 million Londoners run about the streets not knowing what to do and are victims of bombs and bursting shells.

[A report on a German radio station, broadcast in both Germany and Britain on the 18th September, 1940]

To what extent does this source accurately explain the effect of the Blitz on the people of Britain? [6]

[In your answer you should refer to the strengths and limitations of the source and use your own knowledge and understanding of the historical context.]

QUESTION 5

This question is about life after war.

Read the interpretation below and then answer the question which follows on the next page.

By the end of World War II, the British public were crying out for change. Labour would lead that change. Our manifesto 'Let us Face the Future' laid out a bold vision, pledging to destroy the 'five evil giants' such as want, disease and unemployment. It was a message which captured the imagination of the country and took Clement Attlee into Number 10.

[An extract from an article on the 1945 General Election published on the Labour Party's official website in 2015]
